DEPARTMENT R - OPEN CLASS FOODS
Superintendent –

All articles must be homemade and the product of exhibitor.

To avoid waste, following judging of baked goods, a smaller exhibit will be placed in the cases. Exhibitors need to mark all returnable plates and dishes and pick up the remainder of their entries by Thursday night. Please indicate to the foods superintendent whether or not you will be picking up the remainder of your baked goods.

No person can enter more than one exhibit per class number.

Ziploc or Hefty bags make it easier to open bags for judging.

No canned food will be opened except in case of doubt.

Jellies will be opened and cut to show their consistency.

Canned food will be disqualified for the following reasons:

- Not sealed
- Standard canning jars are not used
- Coloring is added
- Wax is used for sealing jams and jellies. The USDA does not approve this method.

SPECIAL AWARDS:

The Butler County Agricultural Society will present a cookbook to the exhibitor who has the most first place entries.

Didier's Grocery of David City will present $5 gift certificates to the exhibitors of the outstanding baked goods entry and outstanding canning entry.

Dale's Food Pride of David City will present $5 gift certificates to the 1st place entries in the baking and canning divisions. A point system of 5-3-2-1 for purple, blue, red and white ribbons respectively will be used to determine the winners.

Sponsored by Butler County Arts Council

Submissions in this category will be managed and judged by representatives of the Butler County Arts Council. First, second and third place prizes of $25, $15, and $10, respectively will be awarded from the Digital Studio Art.

All entries must be the work of the exhibitor, including source photos and any drawing or graphics that might be incorporated into the final image. Photos may be taken with a digital camera or scanned into a computer. Exhibits must be securely mounted and/or framed so that they can be hung on a single nail or hook. Otherwise, they will not be displayed or judged.

Subject material is not restricted other than suitability for public display as determined by the Butler County Agricultural Society and photography superintendent. Signatures, name plaques or other references to the exhibitor must be removed or securely covered from view until all entries are judged.

These entries must be works created by the exhibitor within the year preceding the fair, but may include photographs taken by the exhibitor at any time. Images must incorporate at least one photograph, but may include multiple photos, graphics, typography, etc. Provided they were drawn or otherwise created by the exhibitor. All or portions of the work may be digitally altered as desired.

Each entry will be judged on composition, creativity, technical skill, aesthetic appearance, professional presentation and technical difficulty, with each category earning a maximum of 10 points (60 points total).

Each entry must include thumbnails of all source photos prior to alteration and a brief explanation of how the final image was created. They must also list the brand and model of each camera or scanner used, as well as names and versions of all software including drawing tools, layout, editing, digital filters, special plug-ins, etc.

An individual may enter up to three digital studio photo art items in this category.

No ribbon placing given.
